Mr. and Mrs. W. L. R. Johnson of Ruckley, Ill., who have been visiting Mrs. J. B. Meserve, went east, Sunday. They should have remained a little longer, and enjoyed some of the fine weather we are now having.

Mr. H. C. Chapman, representing the Hastings Gazette-Journal, spent several days in McCook this week. Mr. Chapman is a genial gentleman, an old newspaper man, and the interests of his paper are carefully looked after.
 Tuesday's Hastings Gazette-Journal contained the following personal. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cook of the thriving city of McCook, in the Republican valley, were in the Queen City yesterday. They registered at the New England.

The Daily Crete Standard of which we have a copy before us, makes a very creditable showing for the size of the town from which it is issued. It will be continued only through the campaign. Politics must be slightly warm in Saline.

W. H. McCartney and J. J. Lamburn of Indianola, were in town on Sunday. They "did as the Romans," and went down to see the water works; to put it mild, they were as highly pleased with our "crowning glory" as our own people, who take great and entirely excusable pride in this luxury.

Rogers have received a stock of overcoats that excels anything ever brought into the valley. They range in price from $3 up to the finest, and the man who goes around shaking with cold when he can get one of these good, warm coats at a price so low that all can buy, had better go back east and give up the ghost, then probably he will have no use for one.

The beautiful and tasty manner in which Messrs. Tom McCartney and George Chenery have fixed up their apartment opposite our office has been so frequently commented on, that on Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Will McCartney, Miss Theresa Wilkinson and Miss Hattie Papin came up from Indianola to view it. That they were pleased to surprise cannot be questioned.

We print this week five hundred extra copies of THE TRIBUNE to be distributed gratuitously throughout the county. As these papers will fall into the hands of many persons who are not subscribers to and regular readers of our paper, we extend to them all a cordial invitation to become such. Send us a postal card stating that you want the paper, and we will enter your name on our list, and you can make a settlement with us when you come to McCook.

Cupids Victims.

At Belleville, Ontario on Wednesday, Oct. 24th, J. Preston Israel, formerly of the TRIBUNE and now a prosperous grocer of our city, was united by marriage to Miss Lettie McInroy, a beautiful and accomplished young lady of that town. The happy couple started west on their bridal tour, after visiting relatives and friends in Iowa for a few days, and reached McCook, Monday night. The TRIBUNE wishes them a BON VOYAGE over life's turbulent sea, and the "Devil" embraces the "forms" with much zeal when he thinks of a similar happy occasion to which he may now aspire.

A Horrible Death.

C. E. Yaney, head brakeman on the through Denver freight No. 9, met with a horrible death, just beyond Denton, Saturday morning, by falling between the cars. The victim of this terrible tragedy was a young man, twenty-three years old, and has a brother in Lincoln in the employ of the B. & M. road. His brother was to follow him west by next train, and was just ready to start from Lincoln when the mangled remains were brought to him. The shock was so terrible to him that reason fled and it is thought he will never recover.

Wanted.

A Letter From Mr. Nettleton.

ED. McCOOK TRIBUNE:—In the Indianola Courier of Oct. 25, I find an article referring to the Public School work and myself which may be misleading.
 The statement that "There are many schools in the county that have never been visited by the present incumbent," is incorrect, unless the SEVERAL SCHOOL TERMS is intended; if the latter is the meaning, I need only say that in a new county, where so much was to be done and where there was so little money in the treasury, and where, until after the county debt was founded, warrants would bring only sixty cents on the dollar, it seemed extravagant to visit every school every term; many of them very small, some consisting of only one family. It may not be understood that there are no perquisites to the office of Co. Supt.

The salary is for time actually employed, so much per day; in this county, the minimum price fixed by law, and the account must be sworn to.

It is difficult to believe "Directors complain of his lack of attention to district matters," for no school officer, or school teacher has, by letter or otherwise, brought any matter to my notice that has been neglected.

There is absolutely no exception to this; every letter and every communication has been answered, and they have been very numerous.

And, I believe the County Commissioners will ratify my statement, that I have made careful use of all the appropriation I was at liberty to draw upon. And, I will add that I have spent many days for which I made no charge.

Evidently the editor does not understand the subject of which he writes; that he does, seems to me a bold assumption on his part.

In this short article, I can only hint at a part of what has been done since my term of office commenced.

Twenty-five school districts have been formed; a large number of the district boundaries changed; a great many additions to districts made; all in response to petitions of a majority, or two-thirds of the legal voters, of the districts affected.

There have been two county conventions of district school officers, seven teachers' institutes and teachers' associations; the latter without expense to the county, and very little to the teachers. These important meetings of school officers and teachers are the only ones ever held in the county.

About forty teachers' examinations and twice as many visits to schools, and school districts, in response to letters of request from school officers, etc.; made the necessary reports, and performed my duties, as I believe, in general faithfully. And, I hardly think any honest persons who are acquainted with me will say that I am not "active and energetic," but if such should be found, I will try to mend my ways, for these are excellent qualities, and I respect the opinions of honest people. "O, wad some fairie the giftie gie us, To see ourselves as others see us, It wad frae mony a blunder free us."
 Resp'y, C. L. NETTLETON.
 McCook, Oct. 27, 1883.

An Ode to Consistency.

Oh, consistency thou art a jewel,
 Oh, Bishop, thou art consistency;
 Thou opposeth the election of Dr. Green because he sells liquor,
 Thou supporteth Dr. Johnson because he sells liquor;
 Thou opposeth Judge Ashmore because he last year, bolted the Republican Convention,
 Thou supporteth Pickens because he, this year, bolted the Republican Convention;
 Thou supporteth Goodrich because he is a relative of thine,
 Thou whacketh Starbuck because is a relative of thine. (Thank God, on thy wife's side,
 Oh, Bishop, thou art consistency,
 Oh, consistency, thou art a jewel.
 BY HIM WHOM THOU WHACKETH.

He Formally Accepts.

ED. TRIBUNE: Permit me to say, through the columns of your paper, that, unsolicited by myself, my name was placed before the Republican County Convention for the office of Commissioner of the 3d district. I then stated to the convention that I did not want the office, and would thank them to name some other man for the position. But the convention saw proper to nominate me; and, since the action of that convention, I have given the matter some consideration, and now say that I accept the nomination; and, if elected, will, to the best of my ability, discharge the duties of said office. Resp'y,
 S. L. GREEN.

Out of Place.

THERE are renewed rumors of the finding of Charley Ross. The boy, if living, must be now thirteen or fourteen years of age. He was four years old when kidnapped and ought to have at least some faint remembrance of his taking off. But all the chances are against the probability of his being alive.

HEART DISEASE! CURED BY

Dr. Rush's Regulator, FOR HEART TROUBLES.

Wm. G. Osgoodby, the well-known safe manufacturer of Buffalo, Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Newark, and Atlanta, Ga., says:
 OFFICE OF OSGOODBY'S IMPROVED SAFES, 17 S. Broad St. reet, ATLANTA, Ga., October 17th, 1883.
 Dr. Rush's Medical Association:
 "Dear Doctors:—The three bottles of 'Dr. Rush's Regulator' I ordered were received by express last week. I have taken nearly one bottle and am thoroughly satisfied with the result. For over two years I have been troubled with sharp pains at the heart. My physician, upon examination, pronounced an enlargement of the heart and was unable to give me any relief. The trouble grew worse until I had become convinced that I could not be cured. While in New York City, last week, I called upon one of the most prominent physicians there, who charged me $25 for an examination and then recommended your 'Regulator.' Knowing you to be a regular Medical Association, and not a patent medicine scheme I ordered the three bottles. I have not been troubled since I commenced taking it, but shall continue to take the entire three bottles so as to obtain a permanent cure. You have my sincere thanks.
 I am, gentlemen, Very respectfully,
 Wm. G. OSGOODBY.

Dr. Rush's Regulator
